

Teddington Circuit Worship Sheets

Sunday 21st February 2021

This short act of worship has been prepared for you to use whilst we are unable to use Methodist Church premises. We invite you to spend a few moments with God, knowing that other people are sharing this act of worship with you.

Opening Prayer

We come before you Almighty God, ever mindful that you have called us as your own. Lead us in your truth and teach us your paths of steadfast love and righteousness. Amen.

Hymn: "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" Stf 465

Sing/ Read /pray /proclaim the words or listen to it here:

Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
feed me now and evermore;
feed me now and evermore.

Open thou the crystal fountain
whence the healing stream shall flow;
let the fiery, cloudy pillar
lead me all my journey through:
strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer,
be thou still my strength and shield;
be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan
bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction,
land me safe on Canaan's side:
songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee;
I will ever give to thee.

William Williams (1717-1791)

Let us pray together

O Lord we lift up our hearts and minds and bless your holy name. For you have created all things and your glory is seen in the heavens and on the earth. Thank you for your bountiful provision and your love that goes before us. May this time of Lent enable us to walk humbly and be mindful of your covenant with us. Forgive us Lord for the words said and deeds done that have been selfish, inconsiderate, or hurtful to others. We thank you for your mercies that are new to us each day and that wash us clean. In Jesus Name. Amen

Father God

This Lent

Lead us on a journey,
Following Christ's footsteps,
Learning what it means to love one another,
Deepening our understanding of His sacrifice,
And the sacrifices You wish us to make in our lives.

Jesus Christ

This Lent

Hold our hands and show us Your way
Through the narrow gate,
Avoiding temptation and selfishness
To find life in all its fullness,
And to share this with all those we meet.

Holy Spirit

This Lent,

Enter deep into our hearts,
Be part of our breath,
And show us where we are needed most,
Giving us strength and courage to trust in You,
And do God's Will every day of our lives.
Amen

Today's Reading from the Old Testament: Genesis 9:8-17

Today's Gospel Reading: Mark 1:9-15

Time to Reflect.

Here we are at the beginning of a new Church season in Lent 1. There are two readings for today. The Gospel passage should be familiar to folk as portions of it have already featured twice in this year's lectionary and the Genesis passage which I find particularly applicable to our present situation worldwide.

Noah and his family have been restricted to an Ark for 378 days, not just 40 days. Which is so similar to how long this Pandemic has been making our lives difficult. When Noah disembarks and makes sacrifices to God, then God promises to establish a covenant which has the rainbow as a sign.

What will you sacrifice to God to open a way for God to bless you? Our hands are full of many different things that we need to let go of before we can take up new things.

Just as God wiped the earth clean of all wickedness by way of the flood waters so too does the Baptism of repentance wash us clean.

The wilderness, like Lent is also a time for reflection, fasting and spending time in prayer as we prepare for what God is going to do in us and through us.

What are the "struggles" that you have faced in this last year? What path will you take in the Lenten season ahead?

Take a time to sit quietly.

A time of prayer

Lord God, we pray for those who find themselves in restricted spaces and unexpected places.

We pray for places affected by climate change, areas where water is scarce and crops fail, places where flooding is affecting people's homes.

We pray for those who are homeless and have lost everything through earthquake or fire.

We pray for those who wait for medical results, for those who are ill in hospital or at home.
For those who have lost their jobs and those who await news about benefits.

We pray for our healthcare workers, nurses and doctors, essential service workers, teachers and police.

For our children whose education has been so badly affected, and parents who are juggling time constraints.

For those who are grieving the loss of loved ones.
For Religious leaders and funeral parlours who minister to the bereaved.

For those who are working on the Vaccine rollout, scientists, government leaders, economists, and medical aid associations.

Breathe new life into your people and all circumstances as we approach Easter. May we always know your presence with us. Amen

A prayerful poem for healing, justice, and peace

Hear our prayer for others in the trials they face-
Fellow sisters, brothers; grant to them your grace.
Heal the crushed and broken, body, mind, and soul-
Let your word be spoken, touch and make them whole.

Chide the rich and greedy, strengthen the oppressed,
Reach out to the needy, comfort the distressed.
May the humble flourish, may the poor be fed,
In your mercy nourish all who crave for bread.

Bring to every nation, harmony once more.
Reconciliation, peace instead of war.
Hear our intercession, make our lives a prayer.
Help us give expression to your love and care.

or sing a verse of a hymn that comes to mind.

A prayer of blessing

Our Father
As we start on this lent journey
We ask for your strength and guidance
To see
Us through successfully,

Help us to know you more
And know the power of your might.

May we be guided by your holy spirit in all that we do
Amen
